PORT ITEMS.

— Yesterday was election day. It was like ing handle—all on one side. We noticed to so frings laid out on the wharf with their kins soaked with unndulterated corn jute, on limber to carry to the stationionses, some of them must have rut a cart load of water melons.

—Capt. Dan. Richards' dock left the wharf vesterbuy, bound South. Nobody didn't tell it tego. The river rising, it floated off. —The Ada Lyon went out to Evansville iast evening with a fine trip. She is gaining a reputation for herself and officers in the trade. She heaves again next Thursday. Tom Small is her active and clever agent.

On relever friend Sam, Onerbacker, went to West Buden and stayed a week or two sun, came back Saturday weighing one pound more than when he went. It cost thin be-ween $55 and $100. Pretty dear pound of desh

—it is all a mistake about Capt. Benson durtering the W.F. Cuttis. He's got one bout more than he wants now. — Capt. A. T. Gilbiore has returned home

— The Mattle Burns leaves here for St. Louis to-morrow merning at D o'clock. —The Alpha braves here next Saturday for lairo. She's O. K.

The Darling owes us a deltar. May she acver owe unybody else more than that. We can stand it if they can.
